

Europe's biggest E-Logistics marketplace and 'Davos for logistics in e-commerce'

The 2nd edition of the invite-only and carbon neutral DELIVER series takes place in Berlin (Funkhaus) on June 27th & 28th 2017.

Building on the success of the first edition of DELIVER in Luxembourg which gathered 400 delegates from 30 countries with a 100% post event appraisal ratio, the second edition doubles in size with 800 delegates from 50 countries, including 450 retail decision makers, up to 150 logistics service providers, 50 investors, 50 journalists, 50 e-commerce associations and 50 guests including speakers, policy makers and promising startups.

This international event gathers a 'League of Leaders' from most iconic retailers from all continents with a focus on European largest e-commerce markets (UK, Germany, France, Spain, Italy, Russia, Benelux, Nordics), some retailers traveling up to 20,000 km from USA and China to join.

At the inaugural edition, 67% of selected retailers were at C-level and 17% at CEO/MD level, with an average of 50 M€ in sales.

As an innovation hub in retail and distribution, DELIVER #2 focuses this year on robotics in fulfillment & delivery as well as in mobility automation. This will be covered during the 4 keynotes as well as with a global roster of most disruptive robotics startups showcasing their latest technology in action.

Selected retailers, investors and journalists are invited with VIP passes whereas logistics vendors join by buying all-inclusive sponsorship packages including one-to-one meetings with prominent buyers spending together several billion euros in logistics services.
